Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ready or Not, Here I Come is an exposition of the parables of Christ. The book also includes a satire play called The Jerusalem Eye-Witness News with five scenes integrated in between the analysis of each gospel. Then the book changes course and includes many days of the author talking with God until finally, God ordains Steven to bring the message of the coming of Christ to the world. The ordination occurred on April 27, 2008, and is published on pages 610-624, which includes twenty-seven declarations of truth. God promised Steven he would confirm his ordination with a sign so great the whole world would take notice. God chose Major League Baseball. Ken Griffey, Jr., who is named in the book as Steven s favorite player on page 452 mysteriously returned to Seattle in 2009, and hit The Emerald Home Run on April 15, 2009, which was his 400th home run as a Mariner and his 613th overall. Steven credits God for all the numerical parallels. Steven finds that 613 represents a mystery whereby the Son of God was manifest to destroy the works of evil and the word evil appears in the King James Bible 613 times in 569 verses. Moreover, Christ appears in scripture 569 times in 530 verses. Sixty-nine days after The Emerald Home Run, Griffey hit the 5,000th home run of the Mariners, on June 23, 2009, and tied Lou Gehrig with the home run with 2,721 hits. Steven instantly named it The Lamech Home Run because 5,000 years prior Lamech was 135 years old as was Abraham when his father Terah passed away at age 205. The Padres reported 777 players before...
