At Albany the resolution was presented at a joint legislative session called to hear an address by Mr. Taft. The President of the League advocated such a measure for the purpose of pointing out the need of a world organized against future warfare as the greatest incentive to patriotic sacrifice and service. The addition of New York and Rhode Island brings the number of States which have endorsed the League of Nations plan up to fifteen. NATIONAL COMMITTEE ENLARGED Fifty-One Representative Women and Agriculturists Elected to Membership Twenty-six prominent women, representing twenty-five different States, and leaders of agriculture...
