Excerpt: . . . education in order to engage in Christian service, hereafter, and not science, as was misprinted in our last issue. God speed this noble enterprise! Resolutions passed by the Lathes Christian Conference of Tokyo and Yokohama, held Oct. 22, 1898, deploring the loss of Miss Maud E. Simons to the Christian work in Tokyo, have just been received at the office. A Paper was read by Dr. Yates at the Shanghai Missionary Conference, 1877, on Ancestral Worship. Does any one fine cuts that were issued with that arknow where it can le found tide. A W. F. M. 8. member wearing a hat adorned by a dead bird is an unlovely sight, isnt she No wonder that one of our ladies, who is a inenilier of the Audnbon Society, asked that a resolution might l)e passed at the Indianapolis meeting, protesting against such inconsistency. Ovr readers are reminded that Thursday, January fifth, is set apart in the week of prayer for foreign missions: that individual Christians may render loyal obedience to their Saviours last command, and take fresh courage from his last promise. That our Foreign Missionary organizations may lie filled with Christlike devotion, and fhristlike love. That our missionaries may be gloriously successful, being divinely enabled to recognize providential leadings, and to make full use of the witness to Himself, which God has preserved i-ven in heathen lands. And that, to save the lost, missionaries of the Cross may speedily be sent to the...
