E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . s technology, including the spread of strong encryption, and the growth of foreign denial and deception activities designed to conceal, or mislead as to, activities of concern to U. S. intelligence collectors, analysts, and policymakers. As new challenges and threats confront the country, the Committee plays an ever more important role in ensuring that the Intelligence Community adapts to and meets these evolving threats and intelligence challenges. The need to modernize the Intelligence Communitys infrastructure--both hardware (e. g. , collection, communications, dissemination, and support systems) and human software (e. g. leadership, motivation, innovation, language skills, and analysis) with which the Community approaches the future--was a central theme of the Committees work in the 106th Congress. As in the 105th Congress, the Committee built upon the work of the SSCI Technical Advisory Group (TAG) in identifying problems, solutions, and opportunities for Committee action. Reflecting the recommendations of the TAG as well as other problems and shortfalls identified by the Committee, the Committee in the 106th Congress has continued to fight, with some success, to increase the overall level of intelligence spending above the Presidents budget request, while reducing or reallocating funds from programs and activities that were poorly justified, redundant or lower in priority. The Committee sought to focus on the most imminent and critical challenges facing the Intelligence Community, including an aging U. S. signals intelligence (SIGINT) collection system, and serious shortfalls in the Tasking, Processing, Exploitation, and Dissemination (TPED) of intelligence from satellites and other collection platforms. In addition, the Committee continued to concentrate additional resources and attention on the five . . . This item...
