Completely essential read book. I could possibly comprehend every little thing using this written book. You won't sense monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you ask me).

Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Documentary History of Education in Upper Canada, Vol. 26: From the Passing of the Constitutional Act of 1791 to the Close of the Reverend Doctor Ryerson s Administration of the Education Department in 1876 This Volume contains a more than ordinary amount of interesting records of educational work done and progress made in Ontario during the year to which it refers. The several Statutes relating not only to the Public and Separate Schools, but also to the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes, underwent a careful revision. An addition of several new Sections was incorporated in appropriate places in the revised Text, and the whole, when thus prepared, was consolidated, - the one part into a Statute, relating to the Public and Separate Schools, and the other part into a Law dealing with the Council of Public Instruction, the High Schools, and the Collegiate Institutes. The object of this revision, amendment and consolidation of these several Educational Acts was not only to improve the condition of these Schools, and the Collegiate Institutes, but especially to improve the status, and render more efficient our system of Normal School training. A new Normal School, which had been erected at Ottawa, was put into successful operation, and in the formal opening of which, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Attorney-General, the Chief Superintendent of Education, and the new Minister who was to succeed Doctor Ryerson, took part. A prolonged and interesting Correspondence between the Attorney-General and the Chief Superintendent of Education, took place in 1874, on the subject of the revised and improved School Laws. As, in this Correspondence, the various improvements and amendments, which had been suggested, were fully stated and discussed,...
