When it comes to fairness, every kid knows that a parent cant break a candy bar perfectly in half, for sharing. We grown-ups also know what its like not being treated fairly, and we know that much unfairness springs from such things as greed, or hatred, or anger, or prejudice, or misunderstanding, or even from the ways of Nature. But using these big words to explain unfairness to children will probably not work. And so, in this book, author Linus Mundy, offers words and examples that children will understand and relate to. Our children are ready to understand more about this big, wide world we live in. And they are ready to make it better for everyone, by making it more just, more fair. Softcover; 32 pages; 8 x 8. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
