DAUGHTERS: EMMA GETS PAYBACK: EMMA GETS PAYBACK (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Emma, 18 (originally appeared in Daughters, Book 1, The Heartbreak of Human Trafficking.) Six months have gone by. She and her new best friend, Alexis, leave the safety of Abundance, Montana, and the home of her foster father, Bailey Forbes, to head 200 miles back out into the cold world. Emma s college goal is Child Psychology and Criminal Justice, so that she can help other young girls in trouble. The University of Montana, Wyman, should be safe. After all, it s a university, with security guards and campus police, and professors, and many other adults to look after the new students. All the other young girls rescued have been living in Bailey s house plus Bailey s employer, Lance s house, while they get their lives back in order. By the end of the six months most of the girls have either returned to their parents, or have a job at Abundance, and have rented a house with the option to buy. Bailey and Heather (now recovered from her bullet wound) are planning their wedding. Everybody is happy and moving forward with their lives. Unfortunately, Emma s past comes back to haunt her right there on the college campus. Alexis tells her she should call Bailey, but Emma determines to take care of things herself. * Review: 4.0 out of 5 stars Four Stars, July 23, 2014 By Amazon Customer (Kindle Edition) Good.
