*I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .policy at a cost materially less than that of an individual policy while securing the same protection. If 400 members can be secured for this policy the rate would be about one-third lower than the individual rate. It is hoped that this matter can be presented to the members in definite form in the near future. SECOND--That the following proposition be submitted to the entire membership of the Society for a referendum vote: That a fund be created for protection against mal-practice suits by increasing the dues one dollar per year. That out of this fund an attorney be employed whose duty it shall be to discourage threatened suits against any member of our Society in good standing, and in the event this is not possible, and the suit comes to trial, to fight the suit in the courts; it being understood that if, after exhausting all legal resources, the suit is decided against the defendant that the Society does not pay the judgment. There is nothing conflicting about the two recommendations which have been adopted. The first provides a means whereby those members who desire to buy insurance may secure it at a reduced rate while at the same time enjoying the moral support of the Society. The second provides, in case the referendum vote is favorable, the furnishing of legal defense by the Society to any member in good standing. This is the method successfully employed for over ten years by the Illinois Medical...
