After the annual meeting May 23, 1917, there was one sewing bee to finish the luncheon set and towels for the Sophia Smith Homestead. On October 27 a reception was given for President Neilson in Prof. Jepson s studio, to which other Connecticut clubs were invited. On November 3 a business meeting was held at Mrs Harriman s, when the club decided to meet once a week to sew for the Unit. Beginning November 12, 1917, 21 meetings were held on Mondays in Center Church House with an average attendance of 19 members. Two meetings during vacation were omitted and the last one was held at the home of one of the members on April 17. The club spent $207.82 on materials for its own work and that of the Boardman School girls and a church...
