Boston, 131 Mass. 197. following this line of opinion in Massachusetts, provision is always made for an appeal from the decisions of a board of health, either expressly in the act, or it will be read into the statute by the courts. D. DISTRIBUTION OF FUNCTIONS. The spheres of activity of the various authorities in charge of the administration of the health laws extends over a variety of subjects of which those relating most closely to health and disease may be classed under the heads of quarantine, nuisances, and investigation, the last including the acquisition and distribution of sanitary knowledge, and in recent years the manufacture and distribution of preventive and curative sera and vaccines. i. Quarantine.--Maritime quarantine for important ports has been enforced by central or state authorities in this country from the earliest times. The earliest instances of quarantine were all by orders; in Massachusetts in 1647 and 1665 by orders of the General Court; in 1647 by an order in council in New Netherlands; in 1693 by a resolution of the inhabitants in Charleston, S. C; and in 1712 by orders in council in New York. All of the earliest laws on the subject, those...
