

Love in the Time of the Apocalypse (Paperback)

By Gregory Blecha

iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Amish have a casino on the Las Vegas Strip (no electricity, of course); the Mormon Underground rescues people from the clutches of the federal government; the Pentecostals have joined the Aryan Nation (they were the only church that had guns). The United States has devolved into a feudal society; epidemics rage unchecked due to the collapse of the health system; ecoterrorists are bent on destroying every landmark in the book 1,001 Must-See Sites in North America ; the population is ruled by conspiracy theories. America during the apocalypse is, in short, only a bit more twisted than it is today. Love in the Time of the Apocalypse invites us to explore a twisted view of the End Times where love and a good sense of humor can triumph over millennia of prophecy.
