Not illustrated. 1914 Excerpt: .of you know the actual time your church was organized? Do you ever celebrate the anniversary? We believe here is an opportunity for ministering in a large way to an entire community. Several years ago occurred the fortieth anniversary of the organization of our Bement church. A committee began to prepare for this celebration months before and when the time came we had a home-coming of eight days, each having something different, and yet all contributory to the worship of the church and to the education of the community. The anniversary began and closed on Sunday. Separate days were set apart for the various departments of the church. Monday was the day for young people, with a reception in the evening. Tuesday was missionary day. A former pastor and wife were present from the foreign field, and the afternoon meeting was for the women, the pastor...
