REPORT OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT VOLUME 14, PT. 2 (PAPERBACK)

Rarebooksclub.com, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .8 The remainder of the course, which must be the equivalent of 27 or 29 counts, depending on the selection made in the 75 per cent group, may be credited on the certificate of the principal in schools approved for this purpose, or on Regents examinations at less than 75 per cent in schools not so approved. This plan recognizes the fact that some books are to be tasted, others are to be swallowed and some few are to be chewed and digested. It also attempts to recognize the fact that a course of study should be vertebrate. The required subjects for all academic diplomas, aggregating 44 counts, constitute the backbone of the course. The subjects are to be chewed and digested. The remainder of the work may be made up of matter that is to be simply tasted and swallowed. This arrangement, while requiring a minimum of intellectual training, recognizes the fact that intellectual training alone is not the sole purpose and function of the schools. Physical training, esthetic culture and training for useful occupations may here find a place in the work that is to be accepted on certificate. Proposed requirements for a college entrance diploma For the college entrance diploma in arts, 75 per cent shall be required in each subject in the required groups and not less than 60 per cent in the electives, with an average of not less than 75 per cent in all. The following committee was appointed: Superintendent...
