Neebeep Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An expanded, paperback edition of the kindle bestseller! .Twenty-two years ago, when I was twenty-seven, I gave birth to a baby girl. Thus begins this touching, heartwarming, oft times humorous, and true series of vignettes of life in the trenches raising a spitfire baby girl with Down Syndrome. This volume is filled with inspirational quotes, beautiful photographs, and an overall message of the joy of life. While each section is a complete tale within itself, Treading Lightly: Reflections of Steps Along The Path, follows the steps of Our Girl s transformation from birth through the years of her college. Leaving the reader as Our Girl steps teetering upon the threshold of the adult world. Confronting life as a young woman: bright, intelligent, fun loving and eager to learn. Facing her future with hope, a bit of fear, and the never ending love of her parents, brothers, and family. Tales to be cherished, pondered; read and re read. Take them to your heart, and remember: A society is judged by how it treats its most helpless members: the very old, the very young, and the handicapped. Share the wealth. And pass the message along.
