OCLC Number: (OCoLC)457255962 Subject: Water quality -- United States -- Measurement -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . I. Utility Management F. Does the operating staff have the authority to make re-quired emergency response decisions Are there any policies that could prevent staff members from responding to emergencies effectively The inspector should determine if any restrictions limit the decision-making authority of the operations staff. Would this have a negative impact on the systems ability to respond to an emergency Examples of limited decision-making authority include the lack of authority to adjust chemical feed, hire an electrician, or purchase a critical piece of equipment. Examples of limited administrative policies include lack of support for training and insufficient system funding. G. Are administrators familiar with, and accountable for, security needs Key management personnel should be familiar with security requirements that apply to their system. They should have first-hand knowledge of system needs through security needs assess-ments, plant visits, and frequent discussions with operators. Lack of first-hand knowledge may result in poor performance, poor decisions, and inadequate response to emergencies. H. Is there a formal and adequate planning...
