The meanness of Pizarrcs education was publicly known, from his not being able to write his own name, which was always inserted by his secretary between two strokes, which he drew with a pen. He was never married, but had several concubines, fome of them the daughters and sisters of the Incas; however, we dont find that he left any children behind him. Nature had endowed him with fome good qualities, the moll remarkable of which was his bravery, but his ambition was boundless; he never scrupled to facrisce his honour to his interest, and his cruelty rendered him a disgrace to human nature. His fate was in fome measure like that erf Almagrc his unfortunate associate, like him he died a violent death, like him was a victim to ambition, and like him went to the...
