The Committee consisted originally of Gen. E. B. Fowler, James Whitlock, James Woodhead, Anthony Barrett and John Jochum. At their first meeting, Gen. Fowler, Chairman, appointed John Jochum Secretary of the Committee. It was then decided to add four War Veterans, then serving in the active Regiment, to secure their co-operation. Other additions were made as were found necessary, until the Joint Committee numbered fourteen members. The details of the work performed by this Committee, aided by the State of New-York and patriotic citizens, can only be measured by the glorious success of the enterprise, culminating in the erection of a Monument which has been pronounced by the highest authorities equal if not superior to any now existing on that memorable battlefield.
