A 7-year-old boy in rural South Carolina. . . An FBI counterterrorism task force. . . A GITMO detainee. . . What could they possibly have in common? Jake Bond is not your ordinary private eye. A retired army colonel, Jake has a gift inherited from his father and honed throughout his years in Military Intelligence. High-powered attorneys from around the country have made Jake rich paying him to do the impossible--and he always delivers. Even the FBI and state law enforcement agencies call on Jake Bond for help when all else fails. But when a routine assignment from a divorce lawyer sends Jake to the foothills of the Smoky Mountains, he suddenly finds himself in the middle of nowhere and up to his neck in a child abduction. When an AMBER Alert goes out naming Jake as the kidnapper, the stakes get personal, and Jake is determined to get to the truth and find the real kidnappers and their motives before its too late. The Taking of Trevor Ward is a novella of approximately 30, 000 words. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
